Attorney Bryan Lindsay Joins The Trenti Law Firm

New attorney will focus on business, real estate and personal injury areas of practice.

Virginia, Minn. — The Trenti Law Firm is pleased to announce that attorney Bryan Lindsay has joined the firm. Mr. Lindsay practices in all areas of law but will focus his practice on Business and Employment Law, Real Estate and Personal Injury.

Mr. Lindsay graduated magna cum laude with a Bachelor of Arts from Bemidji State University in 2003. Then he graduated from Hamline University Law School in 2006. He is the Range Bar Association Representative to the MSBA General Assembly and member of the MSBA Elections and Appointments Committee. He is also past president of the Range Bar Association 2008-2009 and past treasurer of the same association, 2007-2008.

Mr. Lindsay is also active in the community as a member of the City of Chisholm Police Commission and member of various sporting organizations. He was born and raised in Hibbing, Minnesota and currently lives in Chisholm, Minnesota with his wife Kristen, and son Joseph. In his spare time, Mr. Lindsay enjoys family activities, hunting, fishing, golfing and other outdoor activities.

Joe Leoni of Trenti Law Firm looks forward to having a bright, new attorney on the Trenti team to keep the firm strong and energized well into the future.

“For the past four years, Brian has clerked for the Sixth Judicial District Judges and has done a wonderful job. We expect him to excel with our firm!” Mr. Leoni said.

The Trenti Law Firm is located in Virginia and services clients throughout the Iron Range and Northeastern Minnesota. Trenti’s experienced attorneys work in all areas of practice including personal injury, criminal law, family law, personal and business law.
