Attorney Karl Sundquist Joins The Trenti Law Team

New attorney will focus on Business and Personal Law as well as Estate and Elder Law.

Virginia, Minn. — The Trenti Law Firm is pleased to announce attorney Karl Sundquist has joined the firm's team. Sundquist practices in all areas of law but will focus on Business Law, Commercial Litigation, Elder Law, Probate, and Municipal Law.

Sundquist graduated from Gustavus Adolphus College with a Bachelor of Arts in 1998 and then went onto William Mitchell School of Law of St. Paul Minnesota to graduate in Juris Doctor in 2001.

Sundquist has gained experience as a law clerk for the 6th Judicial District in both Virginia and Duluth, Minnesota. He was an associate with the Johnson, Killen and Seiler Law Firm in Duluth from 2002 to 2004. Most recently he practiced as a Felony Prosecutor for the St. Louis County Attorney's in Virginia, Minnesota from 2004 to 2011. As a Felony Prosecutor cases involved murder, sexual assault, serious assaults, drug offenses, embezzlement, theft, fraud, and DUI.

Sundquist is also active in the community as a member of the Virginia School District Finance Committee Virginia Community Foundation Board, and the Iron Range Ruffed Grouse Society. He currently lives in Virginia with his wife Stacey and three children Leif, Mikko, and Maedi. He enjoys hobbies such as; music, guitar, running, skiing, biking, hunting and most recently golf.

Joe Leoni of Trenti Law Firm looks forward to having a bright, new attorney on the Trenti team to keep the firm strong and energized well into the future.

"Karl has past legal experience in business, corporate, elder, real estate, and criminal law. He will be a great addition to our team. Karl has a history of outstanding legal and community involvement and accomplishments. We are proud to work with Karl and we know he will provide a great service to our business and individual clients!" Leoni said.
