Joe Leoni Congratulated

Minnesota Supreme Court Justice Paul Anderson congratulates attorney Joe Leoni for completing an eight-year term on the Minnesota Supreme Court's No Fault Standing Committee. Leoni is a partner with the Trenti Law Firm. He was appointed to this Committee by the Minnesota Supreme Court in 1999 and has actively served for the past eight years. The No-Fault Standing Committee is an appointed board that advises the Supreme Court on automobile insurance issues and maintains control over the American Arbitration Association for similar insurance arbitrations and complaints.
